

Our 50th year of excellence

COLLAGE

The Colorado Watercolor Society is an organization dedicated to uphold the highest standards and principles of art and to promote, encourage and foster an interest in fine art in all media, especially watercolor.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

To all members of the Colorado Watercolor Society

I thought the State Show "100 Artists - 10 Days" was outstanding. The work was beautiful and beautifully hung. Many thanks to our juror, Judy Morris for her thoughtful selections of watermedia. I know that she went through the slides several times before making her decisions. The opening reception was quite a party, with so many people enjoying the food and entertainment. Diane Fechenbach and Elysia Schietzel did a marvelous job of co-chairing the Fourteenth Annual Show. It takes many volunteer hours to do our shows. Thanks to all of you that stepped up to the plate.

The Judy Morris Workshop was a hit, with everyone commenting on how much they learned from the experience. Many thanks to Pam Hake for having such an outstanding workshop. The Castle Rock Outlet Stores were a great venue.

It is my hope to have a great crowd at the June meeting - the last for this year of CWS. We will recognize the officers and chairpersons and members that have taken leadership roles. The new board will be sworn in and we will have some great refreshments. Denise West will have several demos that will get us ready for painting this summer. It will also be of interest to you that one of the demonstrations will give you the opportunity to see matting possibilities.

I hope to see many of you at "A Splash in the Highlands", the Members Show that opens July 1 (First Friday) at Provide-n-ce and Lapis Galleries.

The 2005 Botanic Gardens Show will be October 24 - November 2, and will be an Experimental and Traditional Watermedia Show. Please read the prospectus carefully. We made every attempt to make it easy to enter. If there are questions, please call me at 303-277-0681 or Carolyn Tegeder at 303-973-2679. Carolyn has replaced Pam Hake as co-chair for this show.

I want to take this time to address a concern that has been voiced by our members - the slides that are used for the jury process. We use the slides to verify the work as it is being accepted. We have to make certain that the actual work is what was juried by slide. The slides are then kept as part of the library of the Colorado Watercolor Society and can be checked out by members. This fulfills part of our requirements for the

JUNE GENERAL MEETING

Get ready for painting this summer.

Six demonstrations will be held by CWS members. One of the demonstrations will give you the opportunity to see matting possibilities using the prospectus requirements. The demonstrators will be:

rita derjue who will be doing her big, loose, colorful style in watercolor;

Diane Calkins presents ways of using acrylics like watercolors;

Katie Brandt will present her technique for collage, using gold foil;

Pat Rucker will show us some experimental watercolor techniques - useful for the upcoming Members Botanical Show;

Judy Morris' video "Tuscan Textures: Rich Textures Using Salt" will be played;

And Matting Clarification: There will be an interactive display of mats and mat colors to clear up the misunderstandings about "white or off-white" mats.

In Memory of

Loretta Weiss, a long time signature member, passed away on April 29, 2005.

Loretta was a wonderful artist and painter. She was a private art teacher who inspired children as well as adults. A donation has been given in her memory to Art Reach Kids.

Our Sympathy goes out to Mary Riney whose husband passed away Friday April 29th.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to both of these grieving families.

YOUR FREE WEBSITE

Almost everyone has a free website from your internet provider. It will be a very simple page, but it's a beginning that doesn't cost. Here's a sample of how AOL works. Do a keyword search of "My Home page." Of course other providers like Earthlink and ComCast will look different. You will then get to a page that lets you select "your first home page." Follow the steps to create a page. To insert your art, scan or shoot a digital photo of your painting and save as a JPEG at 72 dpi. You can also get a digital scan at the same time that you have a slide made by a vendor like Reed Photo. They will put it on a CD that you can then load into your computer.

You will get an address something like: <http://hometown.aol.com/nanlund/myhomepage/index.html>

When you have a page set up, send me your address and I will link you to the CWS gallery page. If you have questions, write to me at: infoCWS@aol.com

Committee News

CWS had the second largest delegation in attendance at the Opening of WFWS30 with fourteen members and spouses. WFWS30 slides will be shown at the September general meeting.

At the delegate meeting it was announced by West Texas Watercolor Society host of WFWS31 in Lubbock, Texas that it would be at the Buddy Holly Center April 4 – July 15, 2006. The juror will be George James, Professor of Art Emeritus at California State Univ. Fullerton. Slides will be due on Tuesday, November 15, 2005. Watch for the Prospectus in September in either the newsletter or at the general meeting. Start painting now and plan to enter WFWS31.

501 (c) (3) that one of our purposes is to further the education of watermedia.

As we close out this year, again I want to thank the CWS membership and the CWS Board for what we have accomplished. I want to thank you for allowing me to be your president for these past two years. I am looking forward to having Gene Youngmann as our president. I have known Gene for a very long time and he is a master artist and a very capable leader. Remember that art can be the bridge to healing our world, and that healing begins with each one of us as we seek our voice through working together and creating memorable art.

Sincerely,

Patricia A. Rucker

President of Colorado Watercolor Society

City and County of Denver Courthouse Hosting Artwork

from Sydney Eitel

The City and County of Denver Courthouse is hosting artists' work in the jury selection room. There is excitement in the air as beautiful paintings are hung for all the public to see. Approximately 600 different people will be viewing the artwork each week. Artists from CWS are the first showing in this room. Thank you to all the artists who chose to participate. The show will come down June 3rd. ■
